Rev of 21 1857

Jeanes

Creeks

This Contract, made and entered into this first of April 1851, between Philip W. Raiford U. S. Agent for the Creeks, of the first part and Americus L. Way Teacher of the second part, Witnesseth that the said A. L Way hereby agrees & binds himself to teach a school in the school house at Tuckabatche, to be constant in his attendance thereto, and to deport and conduct himself in such manner, as to afford his pupils, a fit example to be followed by them and to use every exertion to inculcate such precepts & principles, as will tend to have a salutary influence upon their after life, and for the faithful performance of the above engagement the said P. W. Raiford, agent &c on the part of the United States, stipulates to pay to the said A. L. Way, Five hundred Dollars, per annum in conformity with the letter of the Commissioner Indian Affairs of September 4, 1850

In testimony whereof the parties have hereunto subscribed their names at the Creek Agency this 1st April 1851.

Philip W. Raiford
U S Agent for the Creeks

Americus L Way