Advancing the Human Right to Health

Edited by

José M. Zuniga

Stephen P. Marks

Lawrence O. Gostin

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Abbreviations xix

List of Contributors xxi

Section 1 The right to health in perspective

- 1 The emergence and scope of the human right to health 3
Stephen P. Marks
- 2 Advancing the right to health through litigation 25
Oscar A. Cabrera and Ana S. Ayala
- 3 The right to health: from concept to practice 39
Helena Nygren-Krug
- 4 Health development as nation strengthening 55
Ariel Pablos-Mendéz and Lesley Stone
- 5 Pillars for progress on the right to health 69
Eric A. Friedman and Lawrence O. Gostin

Section 2 The right to health in action

- 6 Haiti: an overview of its right to health history and future directions 91
Donna J. Barry, Kate Greene, Wesler Lambert, Fernet Léandre, and Loune Viaud
- 7 The right to health in Ghana: healthcare, human rights, and politics 101
Raymond A. Atuguba
- 8 Health and development in India: moving towards the right to health 113
Ravi Duggal
- 9 The right to health in post-apartheid era South Africa 129
Charles Ngwena, Rebecca Cook, and Ebenezer Durojaye
- 10 The domestic implementation of the international right to health: the Philippine experience 143
Raul C. Pangalangan
- 11 China's evolution in progressively realizing the right to health 159
Philip D. Chen and Di Wu
- 12 Brazil: a long journey towards a universal healthcare system 173
Armando De Negri Filho
- 13 The right to health in Peru 181
Ariel Frisancho
- 14 Realizing the right to healthcare in Mexico 197
Julio Frenk and Octavio Gómez-Dantés

- 15 The United Kingdom: the right to health in the context of a nationalized health service 209
Matthew Weait
- 16 The right to health in Japan: challenges of a super-ageing society and implications from its 2011 public health emergency 219
Hiroaki Matsuura and Eriko Sase
- 17 The United States: right to health obligations in the context of disparity and reform 231
Alicia Ely Yamin and Jean Connolly Carmalt

Section 3 The right to health: challenges and opportunities

- 18 Human rights-based approaches to HIV, tuberculosis, and malaria 245
Britta Baer, Andrew Ball, Helena Nygren-Krug, Aafje Rietveld, and Diana Weil
- 19 Global tobacco control: a vital component of the right to health 261
Oscar A. Cabrera and Lawrence O. Gostin
- 20 Women's health and human rights: struggles to engender social transformation 275
Alicia Ely Yamin
- 21 The right to health in prison 291
Joanne Mariner and Rebecca Schleifer
- 22 Access to medical products, vaccines, and medical technologies 305
Stephen P. Marks and Adriana L. Benedict
- 23 Nutrition and human rights: why meeting nutrient needs should be a human right 325
Martin W. Bloem and Saskia de Pee
- 24 Primum non nocere and the right to health 335
José M. Zuniga and Imane Sidibé
- 25 Combating torture and other ill-treatment 357
Michael Bochenek
- 26 Emergencies, disasters, conflicts, and human rights 379
Victoria Sutton
- 27 Searching for a role for genomics in the right to health 391
Lisa Eckstein
- 28 Financing governments: towards achieving the right to health 411
Joia S. Mukherjee

Section 4 Conclusion

- 29 The consequences of failure 425
Anand Grover, Brian Citro, and Mihir Mankad
- Index 441