Sir:

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 28th of November last, enclosing for approval, a license granted by Agent Cooper to E. J. Corder Esq: to trade with the Choctaws, together with accompanying papers.

No further action will be taken, in regard to said license, until your views respecting a change of policy in the license system, within the Southern Superintendency, have been communicated to this office.

Very respectfully
Your Obedt. Servant,

Charles W. Dean, Esq
Supt. Ind. Affairs
Fort Smith,
Arkansas.
