

ANNETTE W. MARPLE

The Editors and Staff of the Texas Tech Law Review dedicate Volume 23 to Professor Annette W. Marple. Professor Marple retired from the faculty in July 1992 after a 22 year association with the Law School, first as a student and thereafter as a distinguished teacher and administrator. She received her J.D. degree with honors from Texas Tech University School of Law in 1973 and was the recipient of the George W. and Sarah H. Dupree Award. She has served as Associate Dean and has chaired the Admissions Committee for 12 of her 19 years on the faculty. Professor Marple, through her dedication and selflessness, has served as a mentor and a symbol of professional strength to a generation of Texas Tech Law Students.
