Office Indian Affairs.
May 15. 1847.

Sir,

Your attention is called to the letter addressed to you sometime since, requesting suggestions in reference to a system of revised regulations. The Office is now ready to enter upon the subject, but is desirous of having the benefit of your experience & judgment, and I will therefore thank you for such views as you may think proper to submit at your earliest convenience.

Very Resp^d

Your Obedt Serv^t
